

Review of: "Effects of Teachers' Professional Development on Students' Academic Achievement"

Moosa Fateel<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> University of Bahrain

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This paper presents a quantitative study examining the effects of teachers' professional development on students' academic achievement. It is potentially important topic. The development of this paper for submission to another journal should focus on the following areas:

The abstract is the summary of the research paper, need to be restructure.

Structure: there are some short paragraphs; others are very long. Also, some sentences are incomplete.

Needs to synthesise and critically review existing literature more comprehensively. This includes providing more detail about the existing research studies.

Variables need to be defined.

It is not clear what the purpose of this analysis is.

Needs to critically compare and contrast findings with previous research. Why did this study agree with the xxx findings but disagree with other research? Could it be related to the measures or the sample? It is not clear what the purpose of this analysis is.

follow the APA style.