

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Western Equine Encephalomyelitis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Western Equine Encephalomyelitis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C85227.

A mosquito-borne viral infection caused by the Western equine encephalitis virus. The signs and symptoms range from flu-like illness to permanent central nervous system damage, coma, and death.