

Review of: "Evaluation of Antioxidant Activity and $\alpha$ -Amylase Inhibitory Potential of Melilotus indicus Ethanolic Extract: An In Vitro and In Silico Study"

Azhar Danish Khan<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Ram-Eesh Institutions

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The article is well-written. But I have a few queries.

1. In section 3.2, the total flavonoid content should be mentioned as mg/g quercetin equivalent.
2. Is there no in vitro method available for alpha-amylase activity, as you have directly moved to in silico methods?
3. Check on the plant name in italics.