Review of: "A Security Framework for the Mobile Application Using Color Barcode"

Rajni Bala[1]

1 Indian Institute of Technology Delhi

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The topic of the work is interesting and has practical impact. Though the work is interesting, it needs to be more elaborative. For example, how the proposed method is better than already existing works, at what point it is more advantageous, how security is improved. The figures in the work are blurred and can be made clearer. Additionally, there are many typos in the work.