

Review of: "Sustainable Development In Southeast Asia: Lessons, Partnerships, and English"

Balamuralithara Balakrishnan<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Universiti Pendidikan Sultan Idris

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

I reckon that there were two different topics that tried to be projected in the article by the author. The first part on Sustainable Development; the author has presented it very well in the context of his/her country. In the second part, in terms of language, I believe the author should connect it with Sustainable Development on the specific agenda.