

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Tumor Cell-Encapsulating Diffusion Chamber Implantation

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Tumor Cell-Encapsulating Diffusion Chamber Implantation.

NCI Thesaurus. Code C116702.

A method by which tumor cells are modified ex vivo to express specific tumor-associated antigens, enveloped in an immunoisolating substance, embedded in a matrix, and implanted at the tumor site where they allow for the diffusion of the desired recombinant proteins.