

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Infectious Myositis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Infectious Myositis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C26984.

An infectious process affecting the skeletal muscles. It can be caused by viruses (including HIV), bacteria, fungi, and parasites. Symptoms include muscle weakness and muscle pain.