

Open Peer Review on Qeios

High Resolution Transmission Electron Microscopy

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. High Resolution Transmission Electron Microscopy. NCI Thesaurus. Code C78874.

A transmission electron microscopy-based imaging technique in which the transmitted and diffracted beams are allowed to interfere, creating phase contrast that allows atomic columns to be documented.