

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Truncated BID

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Truncated BID. NCI Thesaurus. Code C104460.

Truncated BID is encoded by the human BID gene and is a C-terminal peptide that results from caspase-8 cleavage of the BH3-interacting domain death agonist protein. This protein fragment localizes with the mitochondrial membrane and can stimulate the release of cytochrome c and promote the progression of apoptosis.