The article is good, interesting, and well-presented. The author has substantial knowledge on the topic. However, there are a few things that need to be considered:

1. What is the significance of the research? Why does the author think that this research is important? What are the contributions of this study?
2. What makes this research different from others? It would be excellent if the author provided the literature overview to find the research gap.
3. What are the lessons we can learn from this case?
