The Authors should consider the following observations:

- 1- The number of references is insufficient and must refer to the most recent five years.
- 2- Clearly demonstrate the concept of a system, utilizing flowcharts and figures.
- 3- Outline the constraints of the system.
- 4- Rectify the grammatical errors.
- 5- Explain in depth the mechanism of an AI-based system.
- 6- Provide a comprehensive explanation of the calculation of system parameters.
- 7- There is no comparative analysis conducted with prior research.
- 8- The proposed system must be executed either through practical means or simulation.
