Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. Include organization of the paper at the end of the introduction section.
2. Related works are weak because literature review section is missing, improve the content by adding recent year papers.
3. Mention the limitation of current research and future scope in the conclusion section. Addressing the models limitation would contribute to better analysis.
4. The size and representativeness of the dataset used for the investigation are not mentioned in the publication. Transparency in the study would be improved by providing specifics on the number of samples and demographic variables.
