

Review of: "Archetypal Resonances Between Realms: The Fractal Interplay of Chaos and Order"

Lawrence Horwitz¹

¹ Tel Aviv University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

A beautiful and very interesting article. It has been asserted by some people that the decay of an unstable system (e.g., Levitan) is a manifestation of chaos. Nagy and Foias have discussed a mathematical construction, utilized by Lax and Phillips, in which evolution in a small subspace of a larger Hilbert space is represented as a semigroup, while it is a group evolution in the larger space. The authors might find this literature