

Review of: "A Cross-sectional Survey of Public and Private Cancer Care in Nigeria and Romania"

Salah Omar<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Gulf Medical University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The work is fits better in the scope of the journal.

The title appropriate, informative, concise, and clear sufficiently reflect the content.

Abstract: The essential information of the article included

References: appropriate and adequate references to related works covered sufficiently in the list.

Structure and length: overall structure of the article well organized and well balanced and written with the minimum length necessary for all relevant information and written clearly and correctly.

Figures and tables: Are they essential and clearly presented.

Discussion: all possible interpretations of the data considered or are there alternative hypotheses that are consistent with the available data.

Language: English used in the article readable and good enough to convey the scientific meaning correctly.

Simple idea but very informative and valuable for future understanding the cancer care.

Recommendation: Accept unconditionally