

Review of: "Integrating Community Service in Language Education: Fostering Social Change via Inclusive and Transformative Learning Experiences"

Geane Alzamora¹

¹ Federal Institute of Minas Gerais

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The text is clear, well-founded and relevant. The methodological proposal is relevant and appropriate for the aforementioned objectives. However, the lack of an empirical analysis based on the proposed methodology makes it difficult to assess methodological efficiency. It is suggested that a case study be included to confirm the relevance of the proposed methodology and improve the conclusion.