

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Paratesticular adenocarcinoma

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Paratesticular adenocarcinoma. ORPHA:363478

A rare, locally invasive or malignant, urogenital tumor characterized by a gland-forming epithelial neoplasm arising from paratesticular structures, typically manifesting with a palpable scrotal mass, with or without hydrocele, and/or testicular pain.