Data Selection Criteria

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Data Selection Criteria. NCI Thesaurus. Code C142493.

The guidelines for choosing and moving specific information elements from the time and place of patient care to the patient report and forward from there to a database and eventually broader population analyses.