

Open Peer Review on Qeios

DITRA

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. DITRA.

ORPHA:404546

A rare, genetic, autoinflammatory syndrome with immune deficiency disease characterized by recurrent and severe flares of generalized pustular psoriasis associated with high fever, asthenia, and systemic inflammation, due to IL36R antagonist deficiency. Psoriatic nail changes (e.g. pitting and onychomadesis) and ichthyosis may occasionally be associated.