

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Hypochromic Anemia

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Hypochromic Anemia. NCI Thesaurus. Code C34380.

Anemia caused by the reduction of hemoglobin in relation to the red cell volume. As a result, the red cells have an area of central pallor which is increased in size. The leading cause is iron deficiency.