Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

INTRODUCTION: some rewrite needed to tune the narration better. (1) start with VN gov intent to reform university through internationalisation (para 4-5). (2) provide updates on specific incentives (e.g., allow branch campus to open in VN) and status updates (e.g., no of inbound/outbound students, no of foreign branch campuses, no of international faculties, no of joint programmes, etc). with (1)-(2) addressed, then the last para of this section makes more sense

CONTEXT: this is a new section, to follow after the introduction section. this section briefly introduces the case study (TDTU). content from section titled "Results from opening Ton Duc Thang University to a global experience" should be reported here. please address the following Q in this section: what is/are TDTU responses as a result of MOET's policy direction? describe policy changes, structural changes, strategy changes related to TDTU responses.

METHODS: this is a new section to follow after the context section. state author positionality (e.g., this article is written based on administrative experience where the authors were directly involved in TDTU internationalisation for x years). there were quotes used in the article - how did they come about? explain under this section.

FINDINGS: restructure findings presented in the article. positives/negatives of internationalisation? content from sections titled "Discussion" and "Conclusion" from the original article should be reported here.

DISCUSSION: rewrite. state author reflection (e.g., all the changes that TDTU experienced as a result of internationalisation - so what, and to what end?)

CONCLUSION: rewrite. sum up what the article is all about, key findings, and describe way forward.

OTHERS: (1) it might be good to declare where the article comes from (e.g., it was a presentation from a seminar/conference). (2) change title to "An experience of global higher education transformation in Viet Nam: A case study of Ton Duc Thang University in Ho Chi Minh City" or something similar along the recommended title.
