

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Non-Sporting Breed

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Non-Sporting Breed. NCI Thesaurus. Code C53700.

Non-sporting dogs are a diverse group. The breeds in the Non-Sporting Group are a varied collection in terms of size, coat, personality and overall appearance. They include the Chow Chow, Dalmatian, French Bulldog, and Keeshond as well as the Poodle, Lhasa Apso, and Schipperke.