

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Shell Vial Culture

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Shell Vial Culture. NCI Thesaurus. Code C114597.

A method for virus culture and detection in which a virus sample is mixed with a susceptible cell type and then centrifuged into a single layer of cells. Following a short incubation, viral growth is determined using immunological detection techniques.