1. Abstract

- Please revise your abstract using background, statement of problem, objective, method, results, and recommendation contents.

2. Introduction

- It is shallow. Please revise the background information in detail.
- Most of the citations are outdated; please use recent references and sources.
- The number of citations is very few in the background. For example, only one citation for one sentence like a thesis. Please review more evidence.

• 2. Methodology

- Please clearly describe the methods of literature review such as data collection, data type, data analysis, the number of papers reviewed, etc.
- Please develop a framework on the policy and governance of agriculture.
- The cited literatures are also old like the introduction, and please update.
- Please delete materials from the "Materials and Methods" title (write simply "Methods").

• 3. Results

- Please write a separate results and discussion section.
- The titles are not clear under the results section.
- The results are poorly discussed. Please discuss in detail.
- The number of citations is very few in the discussion of the paper.
- Put X and Y-axes in the specified graphs/figures.

• 4. Conclusion

- Please write your conclusion based on your results.
- Please put clear and tangible recommendations for policy makers and other stakeholders.

• 5. References

- Please use a standardized reference style based on the guidelines of the publisher/journal.

- 6. General comments
- The paper is publishable with major revisions.
