Review of: "Assessment of COVID-19 from Features Extraction of Exhaled Breath Using Signal Processing Methods"

Husneni Mukhtar[1]

1 Telkom University

This article still raises several questions, so it is necessary to add the following explanations:

1. Theory and need for measurements on the slopes in question.

2. Selection and accuracy of feature extraction used.

3. Description (in the form of images) of experiments in data collection