

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Alternating hemiplegia of childhood

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Alternating hemiplegia of childhood. ORPHA:2131

A rare, genetic, neurodevelopmental disorder characterized by early-onset of recurrent, transient episodes of hemiplegia (including quadriplegia), which typically disappear upon sleep.