Data-Dependent Acquisition

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Data-Dependent Acquisition. NCI Thesaurus. Code C161785.

A method for collecting tandem mass spectrometry data where the m/z values are prerecorded for a fixed number of precursor ions followed by a second stage of mass spectrometry and m/z analysis.