

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Diabetes Insipidus

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Diabetes Insipidus. NCI Thesaurus. Code C43263.

A disorder characterized by excretion of large amounts of urine, accompanied by excessive thirst. Causes include deficiency of antidiuretic hormone or failure of the kidneys to respond to antidiuretic hormone. It may also be drug-related.