

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Large Granular Lymphocyte

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Large Granular Lymphocyte. NCI Thesaurus. Code C12921.

A population of large-sized lymphocytes found in human peripheral blood with slightly eccentric nuclei and abundant cytoplasmic azurophilic granules. This population of cells can be comprised of normal natural killer (NK) cells.