

Review of: "“Same team, different colours”: Examining the association between shared identity and interoperability in multi-agency discussion-based exercises"

Gauze Kitirattarkarn¹

¹ Bangkok University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The authors should justify why three types of research methods (focus group, questionnaire, and exercise transcript analysis) were employed in this study. Specifically to the quantitative research method, the authors should provide the reference of each measure and explain how each variable was measured. In addition, hypothesis was not formulated for the quantitative research questions.