

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Tyrosine Kinase-Associated Receptor Down-Regulation

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Tyrosine Kinase-Associated Receptor Down-Regulation. NCI Thesaurus. Code C42789.

A multicellular process that regulates the number of tyrosine kinase-associated transmembrane receptors, by means of increased internalization or decreased expression of the transmembrane receptor. This process is involved in dampening the response to extracellular signals.