Thank you for selecting me as a reviewer. topic selected by author is important , I really appreciate the efforts of the author.

The manuscript presents an important approach to evaluate what is the governance framework for conservation and development of the Tonle Sap floodplain lake system. Considering this stage of its evaluation, but few structural changes are required to make this manuscript a paper of global interest also suggested by few other reviewer . Start of manuscript is with short form /abbreviation must write full name of river and thing must included conclusion in the abstract through which reader can easily understand the concluded work or result of study.
