

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Benign Skin Appendage Neoplasm

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Benign Skin Appendage Neoplasm. NCI Thesaurus. Code C4615.

A non-metastasizing neoplasm that arises from the hair follicles, sebaceous glands, or sweat glands. Representative examples include cylindroma, hidrocystoma, hidradenoma, and sebaceoma.