This is an interesting article and well structured and provided an interesting insight in understanding the context of the study. However, given that the paper is quantitative, there is a need of developing hypotheses and a coherent argumentation for the hypotheses.

Introduction-

The introduction is very effective and provided the study aspiration including highlighting the gap and motivation in conducting this research.

Literature Review-

The LR highlighted key extant work on entrepreneurship across the context of review and provided helpful insight.

Methodology-

The method is detailed and well explained.

Analysis and findings-

The analysis and findings were well presented and detailed and well explained.

Discussion-

The discussion provided an effective commentary and analysis of the finding.

Conclusion-

The conclusion is effective, however, highlighting a few recommendations would have provided additional layers of strengths to the paper.
