Review of: "[Perspective] The study of Safety of Inpatient Health Care needs to include adverse event rates from venous and urinary catheters"

Shi Chunhong

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The prevention of adverse events is critical for the safety of hospitalized patients. Daily monitoring is also necessary to avoid complications with catheters and intravenous catheters. However, such a brief essay does not provide new data or an intervention trial, and a retrospective or prospective study would be more interesting.