

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Distal monosomy 4q

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Distal monosomy 4q. ORPHA:96145

Distal monosomy 4q is a partial autosomal monosomy characterized by variable combination of craniofacial, developmental, digital, skeletal, and cardiac features: hypotonia, developmental delay, growth deficiency, cleft palate, cardiovascular malformations, abnormalities of the hands and feet and typical dysmorphic features, such as microcephaly, rounded facies, small eyes, broad nasal bridge, upturned nose, full cheeks, small mouth and chin.