Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The article is appropriately circumscribed, transparently written, consistent with its title, and presents evidence supported by current research.

The summary section needs a review that includes a proper introduction about the topic, a clear description of the research objectives, a description of the methodology used, presentation of results and conclusions.

The results must be in accordance with the objectives addressed, but without a clear description of the objectives, the results found in the research may not be understood.
