

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Myelodysplastic Syndrome with Excess Blasts-2

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Myelodysplastic Syndrome with Excess Blasts-2. NCI Thesaurus. Code C7168.

A myelodysplastic syndrome defined by 10-19% blasts in the bone marrow or 5-19% blasts in the blood. Approximately 33% of cases progress to acute leukemia. The prognosis is usually poor.