

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Hidradenocarcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Hidradenocarcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C54664.

A carcinoma with apocrine and less often eccrine differentiation, arising from the sweat glands. It usually presents as a solitary slow growing nodule in the dermis or subcutaneous tissues. It is characterized by a nodular growth pattern and it is often associated with necrotic changes.