

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Clinical Trials Informatics System

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Clinical Trials Informatics System. NCI Thesaurus. Code C19991.

The Clinical Trials Information Management System is an effort to develop an integrated system for managing various aspects of a clinical trial. The overall goal of the project is to create an integrated tool to support all aspects of a clinical trial, including Protocol development/submission, Administration, Patient Management, and Data Collections and Acquisitions.