

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Pseudoxanthomatous diffuse cutaneous mastocytosis

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Pseudoxanthomatous diffuse cutaneous mastocytosis. ORPHA:280794

Pseudoxanthomatous diffuse cutaneous mastocytosis (PDCM) is a rare form of diffuse cutaneous mastocytosis (DCM; see this term) characterized by yellow-orange infiltrated and xanthogranuloma-like lesions with only limited blistering.