

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Benign Kidney Mixed Epithelial and Stromal Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Benign Kidney Mixed Epithelial and Stromal Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C37264.

A rare, benign neoplasm that most often manifests as a multiloculated cystic renal mass. It is characterized by the presence of solid and cystic components. The solid components contain a mixture of epithelial and stromal elements.