Open Peer Review on Qeios

Anastomosing Hemangioma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Anastomosing Hemangioma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C131760.

An unusual variant of capillary hemangioma. It is characterized by a unique anastomosing sinusoidal-like architecture which may mimic angiosarcoma. It was originally described in the kidney but rare cases have been reported in other sites.