

Review of: "Consistent Interpretation of Quantum and Classical Mechanics"

Adailton Azevêdo Araújo Filho¹

¹ Universidade Federal do Ceará

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The overarching goal of establishing a consistent interpretation across quantum and classical domains is of utmost importance. However, I must express my disappointment in finding that this paper does not make a meaningful contribution towards achieving that objective. It is my sincere belief that further comprehensive work is required to address these shortcomings and elevate the quality of the research.