

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Histology

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Histology. NCI Thesaurus. Code C16681.

The study of the structure of the cells and their arrangement to constitute tissues and, finally, the association among these to form organs. In pathology, the microscopic process of identifying normal and abnormal morphologic characteristics in tissues, by employing various cytochemical and immunocytochemical stains.