

Review of: "A trabecular micro-bypass stent combined with phacoemulsification efficiently reduces intraocular pressure in open angle glaucoma in Mexican population"

Ivan Marjanović

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

All Compliments to this work.

Paper should be accepted for publication.

Suggestion to involve more patients in the study. It would be interesting to follow this group of patients in three to five years.

Also, comparison with PXFG, Pigmentary glaucoma, some secondary glaucoma, with this implant, would be interesting. Personally, suggest trying in PACG also.

Diagnostic follow up (CVF, OCT, GDX, HRT) is crucial, despite IOP follow up.