

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Candida famata

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Candida famata. NCI Thesaurus. Code C127696.

A species of commensal yeast in the family Trichocomaca that are found in cheese, dairy products and the environment. It is rarely recovered from clinical specimens, usually associated with skin. C. famata is negative for fermentation on lactose and galactose.