

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Salivary Gland Sialoblastoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Salivary Gland Sialoblastoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C35837.

A rare, congenital or perinatal, aggressive and potentially low-grade malignant, basaloid neoplasm that occurs in the major salivary glands. It typically presents as a mass over the angle of the mandible. Most involve the parotid gland.