

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Erythropoietic uroporphyrria associated with myeloid malignancy

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Erythropoietic uroporphyrria associated with myeloid malignancy. ORPHA:280379

A rare porphyria characterized by a pre-existing myeloid disorder, skin fragility and blistering on the exposed areas, and hemorrhagic bullae typically on the back of the hands. Urine, plasma and fecal porphyrins are increased.