

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Maximum Heart Rate by Electrocardiogram

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Maximum Heart Rate by Electrocardiogram. NCI Thesaurus. Code C119257.

An electrocardiographic measurement of the maximum number of depolarisations of a specific region of the heart, most often the ventricles, recorded during a specified, extended period of time, and usually expressed in beats per minute.