

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Cervical Condyloma Acuminatum

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Cervical Condyloma Acuminatum. NCI Thesaurus. Code C8421.

A benign neoplasm that arises from the cervix. It is associated with human papillomavirus infection and is characterized by the presence of papillary structures with fibrovascular cores. The papillary structures are covered with stratified squamous epithelium. Koilocytosis is usually present.